Charitable fundraising exemption

U Ethical is also the issuer and manager of the Funeral Fund (referred to as the Fund) which caters for persons who wish to promote the charitable purposes and support the work of the Church and for whom profit considerations are not of primary relevance in their decision to invest.

U Ethical relies on ASIC Corporations (Charitable Investment Fundraising) Instrument 2016/813 (ASIC Instrument) in operating the Fund and is therefore exempt from the normal disclosure and scheme registration provisions of the Corporations Act. For this reason U Ethical is not required to issue a product disclosure statement for the Fund and ASIC has not approved or examined U Ethical, the interests in the Fund or the Fund's Offer Document. An Identification Statement for the Fund (as accepted by ASIC under the ASIC Instrument) is available on U Ethical's website.

The Fund is not prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. Therefore, an investor in the Fund will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959. Investments in the Fund are intended to be a means for investors to support the charitable purposes of the Church.

U Ethical also acts as an intermediary under s911A(2)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) to enable the following entities to issue non-cash payment products, such as direct debit/credit facilities:

U Ethical also provides general financial product advice to and dealing by arranging services for retail and wholesale clients in relation to investment in the U Ethical Growth Portfolio (referred to as the Portfolio).

The Portfolio is also issued under ASIC Corporations (Charitable Investment Fundraising) Instrument 2016/813.

Investments in the Portfolio represent debentures issued by UCA Growth Fund Limited. These debentures represent a liability of the company to investors that must be satisfied out of the company's assets but investors do not have a beneficial entitlement to the assets of the company.

Please note that the U Ethical Companies are charitable bodies under the ASIC Instrument and therefore exempt from the normal disclosure, fundraising and licensing provisions of the Corporations Act. For this reason UCA Growth Fund Limited is not required to issue a product disclosure statement for the Portfolio and ASIC has not approved or examined UCA Growth Fund Limited, the debentures relating to the Portfolio or the Offer Document. An Identification Statement for the Portfolio (as accepted by ASIC under the ASIC Instrument) is available on U Ethical's website.

The Portfolio is not prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. Therefore, an investor in the Portfolio will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959. Investments in the Portfolio are intended to be a means for investors to support the charitable purposes of the Portfolio.
