2. Tax information

Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Please answer both tax residency questions below:

Are you a resident of Australia for income tax purposes? Yes No

Are you also a tax resident of another country? Yes No

If you are a tax resident of another country, please provide details of all countries, other than Australia, in which you are tax resident (note that certain countries, including the US, treat all citizens as residents for tax purposes):

Countries of tax residency	Tax Identification Number (TIN)	If no TIN, provide a reason A,B or C (see below)
2.
3.

Reason A – The country/jurisdiction of tax residency does not issue TINs to its tax residents

Reason B – Unable to obtain a TIN or equivalent (Please provide explanation)

Reason C – No TIN is required (i.e., the domestic law of the relevant jurisdiction does not require the collection of TINs).

3. Politically Exposed Person (PEP)

A "politically exposed person" (PEP) is an individual who holds a prominent public position or function in a government body or international organisation, both within and outside Australia. This definition also extends to their immediate family members or close associates.

Please provide the name of anyone that is named in this Form as a PEP or is an immediate family member or close associate of a PEP.
