1. About U Ethical and the Trust

U Ethical

U Ethical is a company limited by guarantee and holds an Australian Financial Services Licence 294147, the scope of which includes the operation of registered and unregistered managed investment schemes.

The Trust

U Ethical is the responsible entity and manager of the Trust.

U Ethical may be removed as the responsible entity by an extraordinary resolution of unitholders, who may appoint a replacement responsible entity. U Ethical has rights of indemnity out of the Trust's assets for the proper performance of its duties, and its liability to investors is limited except in the event of a fraudulent or grossly negligent breach.

U Ethical has the right to appoint agents, including a custodian, and to recover the fees of any appointed agents as an expense of the Trust. In accordance with the Constitution, U Ethical is entitled to a management fee for managing the Trust.

Constitution

The Trust is governed by a Constitution which, together with relevant legislation and the general law, sets out the rights and responsibilities of the responsible entity and unitholders. The Constitution is binding upon the responsible entity and unitholders, and deals with some key aspects of the relationship between the responsible entity and unitholders including:

- your rights as a unitholder;
- the limit on your liability as a unitholder to the amount you have paid for your units;
- how and when a meeting of unitholders may be called;
- the responsible entity's powers to invest, borrow, issue different classes of units, receive fees and other reimbursements as well as generally manage the Trust;
- the responsible entity's power to suspend redemptions; and
- the responsible entity's power to terminate the Trust.

This AIB does not describe all of the conditions of the Constitution that govern the operation of the Trust. An up-to-date copy of the Constitution is available on our website or can be obtained by contacting the client services team.

2. How the Trust works

Valuation and unit price calculation

Valuations are performed on the Trust every business day. The value of the Trust is the total market value of all the assets less the total liabilities including accrued liabilities.

When you invest in the Trust, you are issued units which have a unit price. The unit price is calculated by dividing the total net assets by the number of units on issue. For example, if $1,000,000 of net assets is held and there are 1,000,000 units on issue, the unit price would be $1. You can obtain further information about the unit pricing policy by visiting our website or by contacting the client services team.

Incomplete application forms

Under the Constitution, we can accept or reject any application for units and are not required to give any reason or grounds for such a refusal. To ensure that your application is processed efficiently, you need to complete all sections of the application and client identity forms and provide all required client identity verification documents outlined in the forms.

If your forms are not complete to our satisfaction or accepted by us and we are not able to proceed with your request, we may contact you to obtain any outstanding information.

If your application and client identification forms are subsequently completed to our satisfaction and accepted by us:

- before 1pm on a Business Day, it will be processed using value date of that Business Day; or

- after 1pm on a Business Day, it will be processed using value date of the next Business Day.

Restrictions on applications

The application and client identification forms include details of the identification documentation that we are required by law to collect from you before we can issue any units in the Trust to you.

Restrictions on redemptions

The responsible entity may, in accordance with the Constitution and the Corporations Act, suspend or delay redemptions including when:

- the responsible entity believes it is in the best interests of unitholders as a whole; or
- the responsible entity has taken all reasonable steps to realise sufficient assets to satisfy a redemption request and is unable to do so; or
- the responsible entity is unable to determine fairly the Net Asset Value (NAV) due to one or more circumstances outside its control.

In addition, if the responsible entity receives redemption requests in respect to any redemption date in relation to more than 5% of the units in a class of units, the responsible entity may stagger the redemptions in accordance with the Constitution.

If the Trust is illiquid, redemptions from the Trust will be made in accordance with the Corporations Act. Further details on the circumstances where we may delay or suspend redemptions are available by contacting the client services team.

Investing on behalf of a child

If you choose to open an account on behalf of a child, you have two options to consider:

Option 1 – In Trust For account

- You can set up an In Trust For (ITF) account for the purpose of investing funds for a child.
- Parent(s)/ guardian(s), grandparent(s) or a relative can open an ITF account on behalf of a child.
- The account is opened in the name of the investor and the child's name is placed 'In Trust For'.
- The investor must include their own Tax File Number and the investor is the registered signatory on the account.
- Redemptions from ITF accounts are made payable to the investor, not the person the money is in trust for.

Option 2 – Child account

- Parent(s)/guardian(s), grandparent(s) or a relative can open a Trust account in the name of the child.
- Parent(s)/guardian(s), grandparent(s) or a relative can be a registered signatory to the account.

- Redemptions are made payable to the child.
- If the child is under the age of 16 and total income earned by the child is less than $420 per year, you may claim a Child Tax Exemption and you do not need to provide a Tax File Number (please seek independent tax advice before making any tax exemption claim).

Regular Investment Plan

To participate in a Regular Investment Plan, you need to complete a direct debit request form. The nominated amount will be debited from a financial institution on the 15th day of the month for the nominated period (or the next business day), and will be debited regularly until the request is cancelled. Your nominated financial institution may charge a direct debit fee. U Ethical may cancel or suspend the Regular Investment Plan facility by providing 14 days' notice in writing to a unitholder of any cancellation or suspension.

Investor communication

As a unitholder in the Trust, you will receive regular reporting. This includes:

- confirmations of all your applications, additional investments and redemptions;
- a distribution statement following a distribution. This will contain information on the income distributions, account balances and transaction summaries. Where you have elected for any distribution to be reinvested, this statement will confirm the number of units that have been issued to you through reinvestment.
- periodic statement annually for the year ending 30 June. This will contain your transaction history and investment value at 30 June.
- tax statement annually for the year ending 30 June. This will contain information on the tax classification of assessable amounts in respect of the Trust.

Financial information

Audited financial statements of the Trust are generally issued annually for the year ending 30 June. They will be prepared in accordance with the relevant accounting standards to the extent that the Trust is required to comply with those standards by the Corporations Act or under the Constitution. The audited financial statements are available to unitholders on request. You may request a hard copy free of charge by contacting us. Audited financial statements will not be mailed to unitholders unless specifically requested.

Investor online account

U Ethical provides you with an easy and convenient way to:

- check the total value of your investment

3. Benefits of investing in the Trust

Please refer to section 3 of the PDS.

4. Risks of investing in the Trust

All investments involve risk. Selecting the right investment is important. U Ethical offers a range of investment Trusts that cater for investors with different risk tolerances.

There are many types of risk as explained in the PDS. The Trust is suitable for investors seeking a high-risk investment over a medium to long-term investment horizon. As the Trust's investment strategy is high-risk, it is expected to produce a higher return relative to lower risk investments. The responsible entity does not guarantee a return on the Trust's investments. There is also no guarantee that past returns achieved by the Trust will continue into the future.

5. How we invest your money

U Ethical determines the parameters for the investment decisions on behalf of the Trust. Details about the current investment strategy of the Trust are provided in section 5 of the PDS.

The investment strategy is subject to U Ethical's ethical investment policy. U Ethical's investment process ensures that all investment decisions are in keeping with our vision to improve our world through the power of purposeful investing, and that they promote careful financial stewardship. This is achieved through the application of positive and negative screens, and engagement with companies—together with a focus on competitive economic returns and sustainability.

Ethical screen: Positive

Our positive screen seeks out companies that promote human welfare and dignity or environmental sustainability. Examples include companies producing goods or services that enhance the health and welfare of individuals and communities as well as companies producing goods or services that protect our environment.

Ethical screen: Negative

Our negative screen evaluates a company's products, services and practices to ensure they are not detrimental to society or the environment. U Ethical avoids investing in companies that:

- cause unacceptable damage to the natural environment
- infringe on human rights
- support oppressive regimes
- cause or perpetuate injustice and suffering
- have unacceptable occupational health and safety practices including disregard for minimum wage laws.

Our screening approach means we systematically exclude the following industries due to their inherent negative impacts:

- Thermal coal
- Unconventional oil and gas extraction
- Uranium for non-medical uses
- Armaments
- Gambling
- Pornography and adult entertainment
- Animal cruelty
- Alcohol production
- Tobacco manufacturing

However, we recognise that there are occasions when companies inadvertently violate these principles and make genuine efforts to rectify this. Furthermore, we may choose not to exclude a company where a contravention of the principles constitutes less than 5% of the company's revenue or earnings. In such instances, the contravention may be outweighed by significantly positive factors.

Ethical screen: Neutral

The majority of our investments are deemed neutral by our positive and negative screens. Investment decisions are made on the basis of normal investment criteria including:

- ensuring prudent financial stewardship, and
- meeting our clients' income and capital investment objectives.

You may obtain a copy of the policy from our website or by contacting the client services team.

6. Additional explanation of fees and costs

Management costs

Management fees and costs include a management fee, any recoverable expenses and any indirect costs.

A management fee is charged by the responsible entity for administering and managing the Trust.

Indirect costs are any amounts paid from the Trust's assets that the responsible entity knows or, where required, reasonably estimates will reduce (directly or indirectly) the Trust's returns or the amount or value of the income of or property attributable to the Trust, or an underlying trust or investment in which the Trust invests. The indirect costs are calculated at 30 June each year based on the previous 12 months. These may change from year-to-year. Indirect costs for the Trust are estimated to be 0%.

Transactional and operational costs

Transactional and operational costs include costs such as brokerage, buy-sell spreads, settlement costs, clearing costs and stamp duty. The Trust has a buy/sell spread of 0.25% and transaction expenses of up to 0.1%. The Trust does not have any other transactional and operational costs.

Fee maximums and changes to fees

The Constitution of the Trust permits fees to be charged that are higher than the fees set out in the PDS, as well as other fees which are not currently levied. The responsible entity may, at its discretion and without your consent, increase any fee up to the maximum amount as set out in the Constitution. However, you will be given 30 days' written notice in advance of any increase in fees and costs charged by the Trust.

Ability to negotiate fees

We may negotiate reduced fees with wholesale investors (within the meaning of Corporations Act). The responsible entity may apply these reduced fees at its discretion.

7. How the Trust is taxed

There are tax implications when investing in, redeeming and receiving income from the Trust. The responsible entity cannot give tax advice and we recommend that you consult your professional tax adviser as the tax implications from an investment in the Trust can impact unitholders differently.

Taxation position of the Trust

The Trust distributes all taxable income (including capital gains and tax credits, if any) to unitholders each half-year. As such the Trust is not subject to income tax. If for any reason there is income to which no unitholder is presently entitled, the Trust would be taxed at the highest marginal tax rate in respect of this income.

Taxation of distributions

Unitholders should declare distributions received on tax returns, even if they are reinvested or credited to another account. At the end of each financial year, unitholders in the Trust will receive a Tax Statement that provides a consolidated view of all the income distributed, the tax components and a guide to help transfer this information into the unitholder's tax return.

GST

Goods and services tax (GST) is not payable on the issue, redemption, or transfer of investments in the Trust, as these are input taxed financial supplies for GST purposes. The fees and costs shown in the "fees and costs" section, unless otherwise stated, are inclusive of the net cost of GST. If the GST rate or arrangements change, the total amount payable may change even though those fees due to U Ethical are not increased.

Non-Australian resident unitholders

If a unitholder is not an Australian resident for tax purposes, U Ethical will withhold tax from the distribution paid. The applicable rate of tax will vary depending on a number of factors, such as the type of distribution and the unitholder's country of residence for tax purposes. Non-residents may be entitled to a credit for Australian income tax paid by U Ethical in respect of the tax liability.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Under the US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA), U Ethical is deemed to be a 'foreign financial institution' and is required to obtain and disclose information about certain United States (US) and US-owned unitholders. We may ask you to provide certain information about yourself in order to comply with our FATCA obligations (FATCA Information).

To the extent that all FATCA Information is provided, imposition of US withholding tax on payments of US income or gross proceeds from the sale of particular US securities will not apply to the Trust. Although we attempt to take all reasonable steps to comply with our FATCA obligations and to avoid the imposition of US withholding tax, this outcome is not guaranteed.

Under the terms of the intergovernmental agreement between the US and Australian governments, we may provide FATCA information to the Australian Taxation Office. We may use your personal information in order to comply with FATCA, and may contact you if we require additional information to comply with our FATCA obligations.

Common Reporting Standard

The Australian Government introduced the OECD Common Reporting Standard (CRS) from 1 July 2017.

CRS is a broad framework for the collection, reporting and exchange of financial account information between revenue authorities across all jurisdictions. Like FATCA, the CRS requires financial institutions (including U Ethical) to collect and report to the Australian Taxation Office financial account information on non-residents, which the Australian Taxation Office will then exchange with the foreign tax authorities of those non-residents.

We may therefore collect and use your personal information, or contact you for additional information, in order to comply with the CRS.

Changes to foreign tax resident status

If at any time after account opening, information in our possession suggests that the applicant (you, the entity and/or any individual who holds ownership and/or control in the entity of 25% or more (Controlling Person)) may be a tax resident of a country(ies) other than Australia, you may be contacted to provide further information on your foreign tax status and/ or the foreign tax status of the entity and/or any Controlling Person. Failure to respond may lead to certain reporting requirements applying to the account.

If at any time there is a change to your foreign tax status details or a change of Controlling Persons, you must inform U Ethical in writing using the appropriate form. U Ethical strongly recommends that you seek independent tax advice to determine how FATCA or CRS affects you.

Attribution of Managed Investment Trusts

Legislation to establish a new tax system for managed investment trusts (MITs) was enacted in May 2016. Eligible MITs can elect to become an Attribution MIT (AMIT) by irrevocable choice. The AMIT regime enables a registered scheme's taxable income to be allocated to unitholders based on 'attribution' rather than present entitlement.

We, as responsible entity of the Trust, have elected the Trust into the AMIT regime from 1 July 2017 and will attribute the taxable income of the Trust to unitholders according to 'trust components' on a fair and reasonable basis consistent with their interests.

We will provide you with an annual statement detailing the trust components attributed to you within three months of the end of the financial year.

Reforms to the taxation of trusts are generally ongoing. You should seek your own advice and monitor the progress of announcements and proposed legislative changes on the potential impact.

Manager's tax indemnity

In the event that U Ethical incurs a liability for any kind of tax or impost on account of a unitholder, it has broad powers of recoupment from income due to the unitholder. In the event that U Ethical is required under any statutory or common law to pay tax in its capacity as operator of the Trust, it is empowered to pay the tax from the assets of the Trust.
